MAY LOOSE TERRITORY.

A Bill Has Been Filed in Chancery Asking
That Part of Daytona Beach Be Set Out of Corporation.

A petition has been filed in the Circuit Court of Volusia County, asking that all territory south of Thomas Goodall's property be set aside from the corporation of Daytona Beach. This suit is brought in the name of all the property holders in the territory affected, by Solicitors Landis & Fish and T. E. Fitzgerald. Frank W. Pope, of Jacksonville, will represent the town of Daytona Beach in the proceedings.

The cause will come up for hearing early in January, at which time Judge Minor S. Jones will come here to hear the case.

Ever since and before the incorporation of Daytona Beach, the persons in the south end of the town objected to being placed inside the corporate limits for the reason that they derived few or no benefits but nevertheless are assessed for town taxes.

The case is being watched with interest by many who are patiently awaiting results.

Alexander Says It Was Codrington.

The Jacksonville Metropolis says: "James E. Alexander, of DeLand, writes the Metropolis that the correspondent of this paper at Tallahassee was mistaken in giving him the credit for the fight which resulted in the removal of Solicitor Perkins, of DeLand. Mr. Alexander says that C. O. Codrington, editor of the DeLand News, deserves this credit and that he went to Tallahassee to see the Pardoning Board and not to have Perkins ousted."

Trumbull Cottage Sold

Mrs. R. C. Wilkinson of Evansville, Ind., has purchased the Trumbull cottage on Ocean Boulevard, at Seabreeze, which adjoins the handsome residence owned by Mrs. Buell, her mother. As it was inevitable that we lose Mrs. Trumbull, it is a matter of congratulation that the property should have been so well placed, as well as a foregone conclusion that it would be brought up to the standard of all the buildings in which Dr. Potter is interested.

Mrs. Wilkinson spent part of last winter at the Clarendon, and by her gentle courtesy, which is a family characteristic, won the friendship of those she met. The transfer was made by Baggett & Post, real estate agents.

'TIS ITS TENTH ANNIVERSARY.

The Palmetto Club Will Celebrate Its Tenth Birthday, December
Twenty-Seventh.

The Palmetto Club, one of the most prosperous ladies' clubs of Florida, will celebrate its tenth anniversary on the 27th of the present month.

A committee is now arranging for an elaborate celebration, which, among other things, will include a spread something in the nature of a banquet.

Only members of the club will be present.

The Palmetto Club is now using its rooms on Orange Avenue for committee work but will continue to use the Opera House as a place of meeting.

Cigarette Smoking.

"I see too many young men in this city smoking cigarettes," remarked an elderly gentleman at a hotel in this city yesterday. "If a young man could realize the injurious qualities in cigarettes, they would stop smoking the deadly coffin tacks," said the old gentleman. He concluded his talk by saying that young men who smoked cigarettes should be put in the chain gang for a period.

What It Means.

In view of the talk about two miles in a minute, and the race on the program of the Ormond-Daytona tournament, which requires that speed before the prize is awarded, it may be mentioned that such a pace means one hundred and seventy-six feet a second, or from New York to Chicago in a little over eight hours, as against the fastest train time of eighteen hours. Nevertheless, it is not improbable that the speed will be supplied on the wavewashed speedway of sand, as at least a dozen cars are being built especially for the tournament, with one hundred and twenty miles an hour speed as the main object. Last year the best mile was made by H. L. Bowden with an eight-cylinder one hundred and twenty horsepower Mercedes that was overweight, so the record could not be allowed. His time was 32 4-5 seconds. Mr. Bowden has now retired from the racing game. The present official record is 34 2-5 seconds by Arthur McDonald with the six-cylinder Napier racer.

SEVERAL MEMBERS ADMITTED.

Regular Meeting of Halifax River
Yacht Club Takes Place.—A Growing Organization.

The members of the Halifax River Yacht Club held their regular monthly meeting on Wednesday evening, and a volume of business pertaining to the betterment of the organization was discussed and acted on.

The membership of the organization for some time past has been constantly increasing, and today the club stands as one of the strongest social orders in Daytona.

Within the past several weeks quite a number of the city's most influential business men and visitors have been admitted as new members.

They are as follows: J. R. LaSha, T. Rodgers, B. Z. Snowden, Emil Keesewetter, F. D. Spring, J. A. Clement, Asa Paine, and D. A. Blodgett.

The annual election of officers will take place the second Wednesday in January.

J. W. Wilkinson, President; J. H. Allen, Commodore; H. C. Thompson, Vice-Commodore; F. N. Conrad, Treasurer, and H. G. Hunnewell as Secretary are the principal officers acting at the present time.

The Great Barlow Minstrels.

This popular organization, under the management of J. A. Coburn, will be the attraction at the Opera House on Thursday, December 21.

Mr. Coburn is too well known to need introduction to Daytona theater-goers, and his positive assurance that he is this season carrying the biggest, best and most expensive show he has ever attempted is all that is necessary to guarantee to the public that truth is the foundation for this declaration.

The show is brand new from the time the curtain rises on the beautiful new first-part until it falls after a long list of exclusive features in a brilliant olio.

The singing party with the show this season has been selected with the greatest care, embracing voices of rare tone and quality, and the ensemble or chorus numbers, which have had careful training from, and under the personal direction of Mr. Coburn, is sufficient to say are beyond criticism.

C. M. Bingham, Jr., is spending today in Jacksonville on business.

LARGE HOTEL NEEDED HERE.

Matter for the Board of Trade to Take Up.
Asa Paine is Willing to Subscribe
a Liberal Amount.

That Daytona needs a large hotel of the highest order is apparent on every hand, and especially during the big automobile event, when accommodations are taxed to their full limit.

A hotel that would do Daytona a world of good is one of the pattern of the Florida East Coast System of Hotels. It has often been heard spoken of as to why the East Coast people would not build a handsome hotel in Daytona, and only yesterday was this matter brought up by Asa Paine, president of the Florida East Coast Automobile Association, in speaking to a Daily News representative, who has a deep interest in the success of the prettiest city in Florida.

Paine said that a large hotel here would pay handsomely, and he said that he would be willing to subscribe a liberal amount.

Mr. Paine says the matter of building a large hotel in Daytona would be a scheme for the Board of Trade to take up with the Florida East Coast Hotel System, or other parties that would feel disposed to put some money into such an investment. He says that he feels sure other parties besides himself would contribute to a fund to start the ball a rolling.

Officials Made Inspection.

President Flagler, General Manager Parrott, and other officials of the Florida East Coast Railway, who have been on a tour of inspection of the railway property, will pass through the city this afternoon en route to St. Augustine from the lower East Coast.

George F. Proctor and W. T. Moore, of Jacksonville, came down last night on business.

Remains Shipped.

The funeral of the late Mrs. J. A. Clement, was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the family residence on Magnolia avenue. Revs. Marsh and Bingham officiating. The remains were shipped to Searsport, Maine, this morning for interment.

"The ladies have over 300 new-style hats to select from, at Mrs. S.M. Ryan's, the milliner, over the Atwood drugstore."

OLD IRONSIDES

By Oliver Wendell Holmes

YE, tear her tattered ensign down!
Long has it waved on high;
And many an eye has danced to see
That banner in the sky;
Beneath it hung the battle-shroud,
And burst the cannon's roar;
The meteor of the ocean air
Shall sweep the clouds no more.

Her deck, once red with heroes' blood,
Where knelt the vanquished foe,
When winds were hurrying o'er the flood,
And waves were white below,
No more shall feel the victor's tread,
Or know the conquered knee;
The harp of the shore shall pluck
The eagle of the sea!

Oh, better that her shattered bulk
Should rot beneath the wave;
Her thunder-chock the mighty deep,
And thus should be her grave;
Nail to the mast her holy flag,
Set every threadbare sail,
And give her to the god of storms,
The lightning and the gale!

Sensation in Auto Circles.

A sensation has been created in automobile circles by the announcement of E. R. Thomas, the Buffalo manufacturer, that every one of the fifty horsepower touring cars which he makes will be guaranteed to supply a mile-a-minute speed, and this speed will be shown to every purchaser before he is asked to take a car.

G. W. Booth is expecting a fine bear from Ormond in a day or two. Mr. Booth recently purchased the animal, and paid $50 for it.

A Poem for Today

THE MOUNTAINS

By Bayard Taylor

OWNER the wheels of time go round,
We cannot wholly be disowned.
We bind, in form, and hue and height,
The future to the infinite,
And, lifted on our shoulders bare,
The races breathe an simpler air.
The arms that clasped the lips that kissed,
Have vanished from the morning mist;
The dainty shapes that flashed and passed
In spray the plunging torrent east,
Or danced through woven gleam and shade,
The vapors of the sunbeam's braid,
Grow thin and pale; each holy haunt
Of gods or spirits ministrant
Hath something lost of ancient awe;
Yet from the steeping heavens we draw
A beauty, mystery and might.
Time cannot change nor worship slight
The gold of dawn, and sunset sheds
Unearthly glory on our heads;
The secret of the skies we keep
And whisper, round each lonely sleep,
Allure and promise, yet withhold
What bard and prophet never told.
While man's slow ages come and go
Our dateless chronicles of snow
Their changeless old inscription show,
And men therein forever see
The unred speech of Deity.
